SITUATION

Tidwell Close is a quiet cul-de-sac a short walk from the centre of the town and sea front. Budleigh Salterton is a wonderful coastal resort on the World Heritage Jurassic coastline in the East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). The beautiful two mile beach, framed by the picturesque sandstone cliffs, is renowned for its pebbles and wonderful vistas, and is considered one of the most desirable coastal locations in the UK. There are a wealth of facilities befitting a town of its importance including shops, pubs, restaurants, theatre, croquet, bowls, tennis, shooting, and cricket clubs plus East Devon Golf Club. About 10.5 miles away is junction 30 of the M5 motorway whilst beyond is the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its wealth of facilities (13 miles).

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens into an entrance hall, there is a sitting room on the left hand side with a wood burner and a large window looking to the front with stunning views across to Shortwood Common, and on the right a double bedroom again with a window to the front. Further along the hall, on the right is another double bedroom with a window to the rear and straight ahead a bathroom fitted with a panel bath with shower over, pedestal hand wash basin and a W.C.

To the rear of the house is an impressive open plan kitchen/dining room opening through to a conservatory. A lovely bright room over looking the garden the kitchen is fitted with a range of base, wall and drawer units, integrated quality appliances and there is a central island. The conservatory has a wood burner and French doors to the garden.

OUTSIDE

A particular feature of the property is the garden which is a good sized and very attended. To the front a gravel driveway provides ample parking and leads to a single garage. There is also an area of lawn to the side. To the rear the garden has a Southerly aspect with a patio leading off the conservatory, ideal for outside dining with steps leading up to a level grass garden with a number of plants, small trees and shrubs.
