Location
East Cottingwith is an idyllic village on the southern edge of East Yorkshire, about 11 miles south east of York. The village has a local church and village hall. There is also the picturesque Pocklington canal and lock with multiple footpaths which take you to the East Cottingwith “Ings”. The village has a local bus service serving York and surrounding villages. The nearby village of Ellerton has a popular public house, The Boot and Shoe, a local brewery, the Half Moon micro-brewery and a shop at Southview Farm. There are a number of activities within the village community and there is a useful website.

The village of Bubwith is about five miles away with a convenience store, post office, butcher, public house, hairdresser, church, doctors surgery, a primary school (Ofsted Good 2024) as well as the renowned delicatessen; the Jug & Bottle. The village boasts a sports and leisure centre, with tennis, cricket and football clubs. The Oaks Golf Club and luxury spa is less than four miles away with a gym and swimming pool. Elvington is a popular village convenient for York (6.4 miles) with a pub, hairdressers, village shop, doctors surgery and sports club along with an active village hall offering a variety of clubs and groups. Within the village is Elvington C of E Primary School (Ofsted Good 2024).

Allerthorpe Lakeland park is great place for water sports and open water swimming sessions. Set in 53 acres with three lakes, café and various activities for the whole family as well as seasonal events. The Country Park has a stunning 18-hole golf course and on site restaurant and bar.

Pocklington market town has an excellent range of amenities, cafes, restaurants, a health centre, dentist, leisure centre, cinema, post office, banks and supermarkets. There are also tennis, football, rugby and a cricket club. Kilnwick Percy Resort and Golf Club is situated just outside the town. Pocklington School is a well-regarded private school taking pupils from ages 4–18 years and Woldgate School and Sixth Form (Academy) with School buses available to take children to the local schools.

There are mainline rail stations at Howden and York with regular services to London Kings Cross, Leeds, York and Hull. The M62 gives access to Leeds and the wider motorway network. Monks Cross and The Vanguard shopping centre are about 16 miles away and offer extensive shopping including a flagship Marks and Spencer and various supermarkets. York Leisure Centre at Monks Cross offers gym facilities, swimming pool and a sports hall with a Clip N Climb arena.

The historic city of York is a hive of activity with an abundance of shopping facilities and restaurants, two theatres and York Racecourse. York railway station is located on the East Coast mainline and offers regular services to Edinburgh and London, with some journeys taking under two hours to London Kings Cross.

The city boasts excellent restaurants including the award winning The Star Inn the City by Andrew Pern and the Michelin-starred restaurant, Roots, by Tommy Banks. In addition, there is Skosh by Neil Bentinck which also boasts a Michelin-star, positioned on popular Micklegate. York further boasts a number of exceptional private schools including The Mount, Bootham and St Peter's.
