Spindles Mill Hill Old Shenfield

Brentwood | | CM15 8EU

Occupying a magnificent and rarely found mature plot approaching 0.8 acres and extending to approximately 3,480 sq ft, this outstanding Jack Durston built four-bedroom detached residence combines timeless architectural character with luxurious contemporary living. Situated within one of Shenfield's most sought-after private road settings, the property benefits from a high degree of privacy behind electric gates whilst being conveniently positioned within walking distance of Shenfield Elizabeth line Station, with fast links to central London and beyond as well as excellent local amenities and highly regarded schools, such as Brentwood and St. Mary's.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, the house has been beautifully remodelled and meticulously maintained throughout. It offers elegant, light-filled accommodation arranged over two floors, with a superb balance of formal reception space, family living areas and exceptional bedroom accommodation. The property also benefits from a fully integrated Modern Control4 smart home automation system, providing seamless control of lighting, heating, entertainment, security, and other connected features throughout the home.
