Royal Road, Ramsgate – £215,000

One Bedroom Apartment | 607 sq ft | Balcony | Share of Freehold

Setting the Scene

Royal Road has long been one of Ramsgate's most desirable addresses — a street lined with elegant period homes, just moments from the seafront and enjoying spectacular sea views that are very much part of daily life here. At the end of the road lies Spencer Square, complete with its tennis courts and a touch of cultural history: Vincent van Gogh once lived there during his time in Ramsgate.

Take a Look Inside

Step into the apartment and the space opens up with that breathtaking living room — a light-filled 3.3m x 5.3m setting with soaring ceilings and not one but two sets of Georgian balcony doors leading out to your private wrought-iron balcony. Period detail meets modern finish here: crisp lines, original character, and a layout that just works.

The kitchen has been designed with care — sleek, modern, and fully in keeping with the property's heritage. A large sash window draws in natural light, while clever cabinetry maximises every inch of space.

Follow the hallway and you'll find the master bedroom (18'9" x 8'2") — generous in scale, with a tall sash window, fitted storage, and that same sense of calm. The bathroom continues the theme: stylish, well-maintained, with a full bath for proper relaxation.
