Corrance Road, SW2

This attractive mid terraced Victorian home offers bright, airy accommodation across three floors. The ground floor includes a generous double reception room with a bay window and direct access to the garden, while the kitchen/diner at the rear also opens onto the west-facing garden. The first and second floors comprise four double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom spanning the full width at the front of the house. Already well proportioned, the property also offers superb potential to extend into the loft and side return (STPP).

Corrance Road is located in a residential area nestled between Clapham and Brixton and is within easy reach of many local amenities. Several nearby transport options include the Northern Line, Victoria Line & Overground Services.
