Exceptional Development Opportunity – Approx. 2.7 Acres

A fantastic opportunity for developers, investors, or self-build buyers to acquire this part-completed four-bedroom detached residence with double garage, set within approximately 2.7 acres in a sought-after rural Lincolnshire location.

Offering outstanding potential to create a prestigious country home, the generous plot also provides scope for a variety of alternative uses, subject to the necessary planning permissions, including equestrian or leisure opportunities.

For buyers seeking a finished home, the current owner is willing to complete the project to an agreed specification, subject to separate negotiation.

Rarely do opportunities like this become available, offering excellent potential for capital growth in a peaceful countryside setting, within easy reach of Louth and the Lincolnshire coast.

Early viewing is highly recommended.

Here is an unfinished project ready for your own vision and direction, the works involved will require windows, doors, installation of heating, second fix, plastering, and electrics.
