Interior
An exceptional sense of space, beautifully connected living areas and an abundance of natural light create a home that is as inviting as it is versatile. At the heart of the home lies an impressive open-plan living space, currently arranged as a lounge and dining area. A substantial overhead skylight welcomes natural light from above, while expansive glass sliding doors frame the greenery of the rear garden and create a seamless connection between inside and out. Whether enjoying a quiet morning overlooking the garden or hosting family and friends around the dining table, this wonderfully sociable room has been designed to accommodate every occasion. Flowing naturally from the living area is a beautifully appointed contemporary kitchen. Extensive cabinetry provides excellent storage, complemented by a comprehensive range of integrated cooking appliances, alongside integrated dishwasher, washing machine, tumble dryer, fridge and freezer. A generously sized central island provides valuable preparation space, while subtle kickboard lighting beneath introduces a sophisticated ambient glow, particularly attractive during the evenings. The breakfast bar offers a relaxed setting for morning coffee, casual meals or conversation while dinner is being prepared. Adding another dimension to the accommodation is a versatile room flowing from the open plan living space, currently utilised as a home office. Complete with built-in storage cupboards, this adaptable area could just as comfortably become a cosy snug, peaceful reading retreat or additional sitting area. Its connection to the main living space makes it especially appealing for those seeking flexibility without sacrificing a sense of openness. A separate room to the front aspect of the property, currently utilised as a lounge, would make for a generous bedroom. A beautiful bay window draws daylight into the room, while an ornamental feature fireplace creates an attractive focal point and traditional setting. The main bedroom continues the home's generous proportions, providing an inviting retreat with an attractive bay window and extensive built-in wardrobes. Offering an abundance of practical storage without compromising valuable floor space. An adjoining contemporary en-suite shower room enhances the sense of comfort, featuring a walk-in shower with a pressure showerhead and additional body jets, alongside a W/C and handbasin set within a vanity unit. The second bedroom is another well-proportioned double, complete with built-in wardrobes and the flexibility to accommodate family or visiting guests. A shower room is situated from the hallway, ideal for guests or growing family needs. Completing the accommodation is a further room accessed from the hallway, currently utilised for storage but previously arranged as a useful home office. This additional space offers yet another opportunity to tailor the layout to individual requirements.

Exterior
A wonderfully established rear garden provides a peaceful extension of the living accommodation, offering privacy, beautiful greenery and a setting that has been cherished over the years. Lovingly tended by the current owner, the rear garden has matured into an attractive outdoor retreat, where established trees, carefully maintained shrubbery and layered planting create a naturally sheltered environment. The surrounding greenery provides a reassuring sense of seclusion, making this a particularly appealing space to enjoy time outdoors away from the demands of everyday life. Immediately beyond the expansive sliding doors, a paved patio creates the ideal setting for outdoor dining furniture, relaxed summer afternoons or entertaining friends and family. Practicality has also been thoughtfully considered, with side access available on both sides of the bungalow, providing convenient routes between the front and rear of the property, both with gated entry for additional security. To the front, an attractive block-paved driveway offers off-street parking for up to three vehicles, a particularly desirable feature in this sought-after coastal setting. Mature planting brings colour and character to the frontage, creating an established and welcoming first impression that complements the charm of the home itself.
