This superb, three/four bedroom extended bungalow is located on a corner plot within the desirable residential location of Queen Anne Gardens which is popular due to its quiet and pleasant location on the edge of Falmouth.

The property is offered for sale in good decorative order and has undergone much improvement by the current vendors which includes a large extension to the side which transforms the property into this impressive residence. The property now enjoys spacious and well proportioned accommodation which has added a large open plan 22' x 20'10" reception room, therefore given the ability to have a fourth bedroom in the former lounge if required.

Queen Anne Gardens can be found on the outskirts of town within a wooded area above the Swanvale and Boslowick area of town and has always been a very desirable location.
