Occupying an enviable position which is elevated and skirting open fields, this large detached bungalow is also convenient for the amenities in the centre of this well served village. Having been recently updated with a modern kitchen, bathroom and en-suite to the principal bedroom the property has also been re-modelled to create a superb open plan layout with a living/dining kitchen opening into a garden room. Boasting a large double garage and with off-street parking, the property has attractive gardens to three sides. Viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION
The property is in an enviable position at the head of the cul-de-sac forming St Augustine Drive and skirting open fields to the rear. St Augustine Drive leads off from Church Lane close to the centre and amenities of this popular Holderness village.

Skirlaugh is a convenient Holderness village which has a parish population of around 1800. The village is well served by village shops, a public house and its own primary school. The village is located about 8 miles by road from the city of Hull (on the main bus route) and a similar distance from the market town of Beverley as well as the East Yorkshire coastal town of Hornsea.
