IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and the central hallway leads first to two well-proportioned bedrooms, followed by the bathroom with bath and shower above. Further along, the separate kitchen is bright and practical, with white cabinetry, timber worktops and tiled flooring. At around 692 square feet in total, there's a generous sense of space throughout, with a layout that feels particularly easy to live in.

The reception room is a real highlight, with windows bringing in plenty of daylight and enough room for generous seating. Soft neutral tones are lifted by a rich green feature wall around the fireplace, while carpeting keeps things feeling warm and comfortable. Outside, the large private garden gives you a brilliant amount of outdoor space, with lawn, established planting and plenty of room to make the most of warmer days.

WHAT ELSE?

Highams Park station is a short walk away, with direct Weaver Overground services towards Liverpool Street and an easy change at Walthamstow Central for the Victoria line. Epping Forest and Highams Park Lake put some of east London's loveliest green space within easy reach, with woodland walks, open meadows and Humphry's Café by the lake. Highams Park's village centre has plenty of independent favourites to get to know, including The Stag & Lantern Micropub and Yaz Restaurant, alongside shops and everyday amenities around the clock tower and railway crossing. North Chingford is within easy reach too, with its independent shops, restaurants and cafés around Station Road, as well as Chingford Plain and the wider reaches of Epping Forest close by.
