City of Stoke-on-Trent

Description
1.34 Acre (s) of Paddock land located on the periphery of Blurton with views of the surrounding rural landscape. The land may have potential for alternative uses subject to obtaining the necessary planning approvals.

Location
The land is located on the southern fringes of the Blurton and Newstead areas. The immediate locality benefits from excellent access to community amenities, including The Cuckoo public house located directly on the road, alongside local employment hubs such as the Blurton Business Park. Educational requirements are well served by a variety of nearby institutions, including Newstead Primary Academy and Sutherland Primary Academy for primary-aged children (both within 0.5 miles), as well as Ormiston Sir Stanley Matthews Academy for secondary education. The location is highly connected via public transport, featuring multiple active bus stops directly on Barlaston Road, and provides convenient vehicular access to the region's primary road network, including the A50 and the M6 motorway. For national rail links, Longton Railway Station sits just 2 kilometres to the north-east, while the main-line Stoke-on-Trent Railway Station is located approximately 6 miles away, offering direct and frequent services to major destinations such as Birmingham, Manchester, and Liverpool.
