About the property

This superbly well-restored property dates back to 1913. The local, island-based developer has kept original features where possible and ensured each home has been carefully designed, with only 8 apartments within the building.

This particular apartment sits on the first floor with bags of space and plenty of character too. A large hallway space links the living areas, with the lounge having a large bay window, and the kitchen/diner has a range of modern units with an integrated washing machine and fridge/freezer. There are three bedrooms which are suitably complemented by the bath/shower room. The hallway is also a very large space which could be utilised as a study area too!

Set in the heart of East Cowes, Victoria Apartments are within walking distance of the Waitrose store and the Seafront too. Those who wish to rely on easy access to the mainland will find the Red Funnel car ferry is very close by too.

Council Tax Band: C
