£1,325,000

Apartment 402 2 Wood Crescent, London, W12 7GJ

An exceptional residence at Television Centre, White City, set within the iconic Television Centre development, this impressive two-bedroom apartment offers sophisticated contemporary living, combining generous proportions, elegant interiors and exceptional resident amenities in one of West London's most sought-after addresses.

Extending to approximately 1,478 sq ft, the apartment features an expansive open-plan reception and kitchen, creating a refined setting for entertaining and everyday living. Contemporary finishes and integrated appliances complement the space, while doors open onto a private southwest facing balcony. Both generously proportioned double bedrooms benefit from dedicated dressing areas and en-suite bathrooms. A welcoming entrance hall, separate guest cloakroom, utility room and extensive storage complete the thoughtfully designed accommodation.

Residents enjoy access to an outstanding range of facilities, including Soho Health Club, featuring a gym, swimming pool, spa, steam room and hammam. Additional amenities include a private cinema, landscaped communal gardens, co-working spaces and meeting rooms, alongside a 24-hour concierge, residents' reception and on-site management team.

Rich in architectural heritage, Television Centre combines the sensitively restored Grade II listed Helios building with the striking Crescent building, designed by award-winning architects AHMM, creating a distinctive blend of historic character and contemporary design.

Ideally positioned in the heart of White City, the development is moments from Westfield London, offering an extensive selection of designer boutiques, restaurants and leisure facilities. White City Underground station (Central line) and Wood Lane station (Circle and Hammersmith & City lines) are both approximately 0.1 miles away, with Shepherd's Bush station providing further Underground and London Overground connections.

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a substantial residence within a landmark London development, offering architectural distinction, premium amenities and excellent connectivity.
