suite with freestanding bath and walk in shower.

On the first floor are two further well-proportioned bedrooms. The larger bedroom enjoys excellent natural light and generous floor space, while the second is complemented by fitted storage. A modern shower room serves the first-floor accommodation.

Externally, the rear garden has been attractively landscaped to provide a private and easily maintained outdoor space. A central lawn is framed by planted borders, established greenery and generous paved terraces, creating several inviting areas for outdoor dining, entertaining and relaxation.

The property also benefits from a detached brick-built garage measuring approximately 18 ft in length. In addition to its present use for parking and storage, the building offers considerable potential for conversion into a home office, gym, studio or leisure space, subject to planning permission, building regulations and any other necessary consents. In addition the home had a partial rewire in 2024 and a new central heating boiler was installed circa two years ago and benefits from 10 years of remaining warranty (2026).

Farndale Avenue is situated within the well-established and highly regarded suburb of Osbaldwick, to the east of York. The area offers convenient access to local shops, schools and everyday amenities, together with good road links towards York city centre, the A64 and the wider regional road network. Its combination of accessibility, community and proximity to both the city and surrounding countryside makes Osbaldwick particularly popular with families and professionals alike.

Altogether, this is an outstanding and highly versatile home in which the quality of the finish is matched by the thoughtfulness of its design. The spectacular open-plan extension, beautifully appointed bathrooms, landscaped garden and adaptable detached garage combine to create a home ideally suited to modern living.
