IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You're nicely set back from the road by a split level front garden with a pathway winding between screening greenery. Inside, you'll find the kitchen on your right, smartly finished with pine cabinets, smoky grey floor tiles and mosaic letterbox splashbacks. To the rear your lounge is an impressive 270 square feet, with glossy engineered hardwood underfoot and natural light flooding in from wall to wall, floor to ceiling windows.

Step out here onto your immaculate rear deck, giving way to zero maintenance Trulawn and secluded by neatly manicured screening foliage. Perfect for BBQs. Back inside and your ground floor's completed by a handy spare WC, while head upstairs to find two double bedrooms and a substantial single, with a wealth of fitted storage in the principal sleeper to the front. A pristine and immaculate family bathroom completes things in style.

Outside and South Woodford tube, as promised, is a mere nine minute stroll. Sat in Zone Four for the Central line, from here you can get directly to Liverpool Street in just eighteen minutes, for a door to door City commute of less than half a hour. Heading to the West End? Oxford Circus is just nine minutes further. Staying local? George Lane is right next to the station and home to a good choice of supermarkets, cafes and bars.

WHAT ELSE?

- The award winning Ark Fish Restaurant is just ten minutes away on foot, for all fanciers of fabulous seafood.
- Wanstead High Street, the heart of this beloved east London village, starts just fifteen minutes walk away and is well worth the stroll of a weekend afternoon.
- Woodford's beloved art deco Odeon Cinema is just a third of a mile away on foot.
