This attractive 3-bedroom bay-fronted house was extended and remodelled in 2010, creating a large open plan space incorporating an extensive kitchen, snug room and family/dining space with access to a outside terrace and views to the garden.

16 Orchard Avenue is located within a leafy and desirable residential area off Hurst Park Avenue and is within easy reach of excellent schools, a wide range of local amenities on Mitcham's Corner and the river Cam.

The ground-floor accommodation comprises a bright, airy reception hall with the original entrance door and stained-glass windows. The hallway leads to a spacious sitting room with a bay window and exposed pine floorboards. A well-equipped modern kitchen provides extensive storage space, composite working surfaces, a range of integrated appliances and matching island with gas hob. The dining/family area has a tiled floor, skylights and broad, full-width folding doors, opening to an extended terrace area. A cosy snug with woodburning stove completes the ground floor area.

Upstairs, a spacious first-floor landing area with original side window leads to a family bathroom suite, separate WC and three bedrooms. Bedrooms one and two provide built-in wardrobes.

Outside, the property is approached via an established front garden which provides off-street parking for one vehicle and gated side access to a useful storage area. The rear garden has a wrap-around decked terrace and is predominately laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees.
