SITUATION

The market town of Welshpool (Y Trallwng) lies on the Wales / England border and is home to the medieval Powis Castle, the Welshpool and Llanfair Light Railway and the Montgomery Canal.

Known as the Gateway to Wales, the town provides all local amenities in an area of natural rural beauty, within commuting distance of Shrewsbury and Newtown. Welshpool railway station provides direct links to Shrewsbury, Birmingham and the Cambrian coast.

ACCOMMODATION

A frosted double-glazed entrance door opens into the welcoming entrance hall, featuring stairs rising to the first floor, a useful meter cupboard, tiled flooring and access to the dining room.

The characterful dining room enjoys a charming bay window overlooking the front of the property and features an impressive stone inglenook fireplace with a handsome oak mantelpiece. Further highlights include useful under-stairs storage and an attractive exposed ceiling beam, adding warmth and period character to this inviting reception space.

The generously proportioned lounge is situated to the rear of the property and features French doors opening directly onto the rear courtyard garden.

Exposed ceiling beams and four wall lights a, while a door leads through to the refitted kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a contemporary range of grey Shaker-style wall and base units, complemented by laminate work surfaces, tiled flooring and splashbacks. There is space for a range cooker, plumbing and space for a washing machine, together with space for a fridge and freezer. A wall-mounted Worcester gas boiler completes the practical arrangement.

Leading from the kitchen is a useful rear entrance hall with a door providing access to the side of the property and continued tiled flooring. A convenient ground floor WC is located beyond.

The first-floor landing has stairs rising to the second floor, together with a useful shelved storage cupboard. The front-facing bedroom is a generous double room enjoying attractive views along the High Street and benefits from a well-appointed en suite featuring a large shower. There is a further spacious double bedroom with built-in wardrobe, airing cupboard and its own en suite shower room.

The second-floor landing benefits from a useful storage cupboard and loft access. The front-facing bedroom is a generous double room with a walk -in- wardrobe, while a further double bedroom to the rear. The family bathroom is fitted with a white three-piece suite, including a bath with electric shower over, providing a practical and well-appointed space.

EXTERNALLY
To the front of the property, there is free on-street parking, while to the rear is a pleasant, enclosed walled courtyard garden providing a private outdoor space.

The garden benefits from a useful shed, external tap and rear access gate.

Private rear access walkway leading from the rear gate to Powells Lane.

AGENTS NOTES
Currently operating as a successful B&B, the property offers two well-presented first-floor en-suite bedrooms, providing comfortable guest accommodation, with breakfast served in the dedicated dining room.

The property also presents an exciting opportunity for an alternative investment strategy, with the potential to convert the accommodation into three self-contained one-bedroom apartments, subject to obtaining the necessary planning consent. Based on the proposed configuration, the property could offer an attractive rental yield in excess of 8.6%, making it an appealing proposition for investors seeking strong income potential and future flexibility. The B&B also has a five-star food hygiene rating.

The property is located withing the Welshpool town centre conservation area.

TENURE
Freehold. Purchasers must confirm via their solicitor.
