Description

The property boasts a stunning open-plan reception room and kitchen, spanning the full length of the house and creating an impressive, modern living space. Upstairs, there are three generously sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefiting from its own en-suite bathroom. A further family bathroom is located downstairs. To the rear, the property features a paved garden, offering a low-maintenance outdoor space. The property also benefits from off-street driveway parking and a rear garage, providing excellent additional storage and parking facilities.

Situation

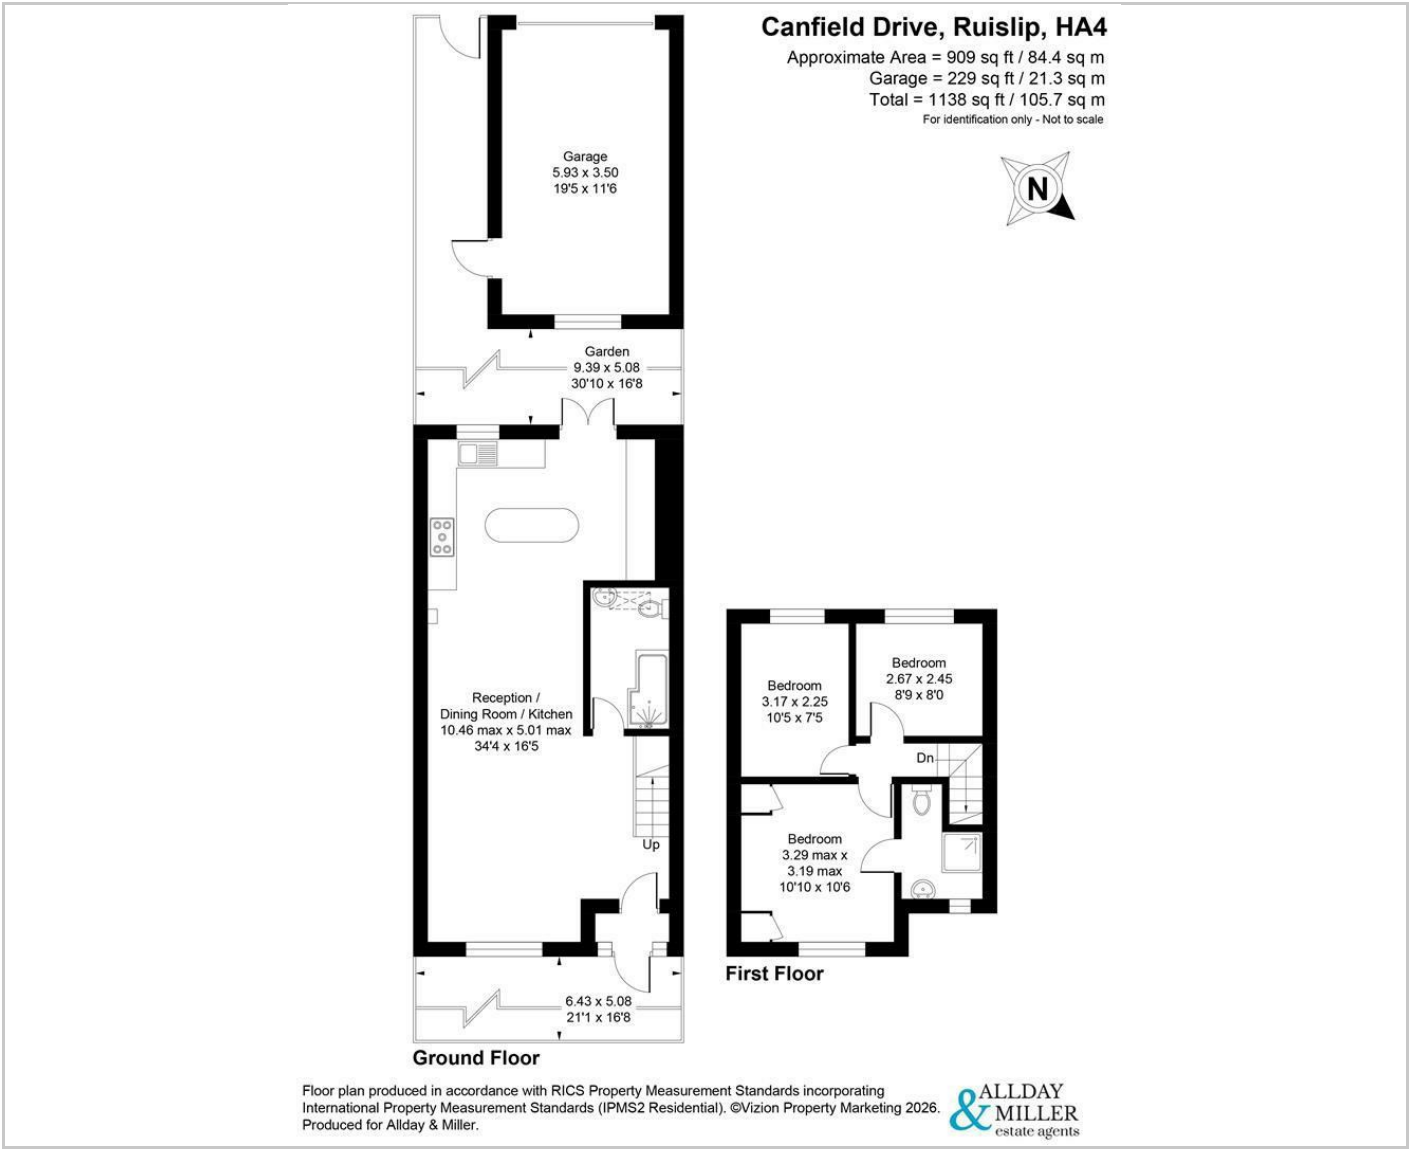

Canfield Drive is situated in a popular residential area of South Ruislip, offering excellent access to a range of local amenities, transport links and everyday conveniences. South Ruislip Station is within easy reach, providing regular rail and Underground services, making the location ideal for commuters travelling across London. The surrounding area offers a selection of shops, cafés, restaurants and supermarkets, while nearby Ruislip and South Ruislip provide further amenities and leisure facilities. Families are well served by a choice of local schools and green spaces, while major road links are also easily accessible. Overall, the area combines convenience, connectivity and established residential surroundings.
