100 Howarth Road, London SE2 0UP

A charming three bedroom period property which manages to retain lots of character throughout. Situated within the areas most popular locations. The accommodation is arranged in its original format to include two separate reception rooms plus a modern kitchen. The first floor has three bedrooms plus a generous sized family bathroom. The rear garden stretches to nearly 70ft and there is off street parking available at the front. Access to the Elizabeth Line is close by as is Abbey Wood Village which is a very popular and diverse pocket of south east London. A lovely family home which deserves an internal inspection.
