Waking up & making a cup of tea in the morning and while waiting for the kettle to boil looking out over the luscious green garden and watching the sun rise just above the back garden wall. Then getting a coffee at Radical Roasters, the best coffee in Bristol & going for a walk around Greenbank cemetery or Eastville park before getting a fresh loaf from one of the farm shops in a community where the shopkeepers know your name & then coming home to this little sanctuary in the heart of Easton
