Welcome to Willow & Verde Apartments

An elegant collection of just 14 beautifully crafted homes, set across two detached, period-style buildings on one of Ealing's most desirable tree-lined streets. Offering a selection of thoughtfully designed two and three-bedroom apartments, Willow & Verde blends classic architectural charm with modern living. Several homes benefit from private gardens or terraces, while others enjoy access to a peaceful communal garden, creating a welcoming balance between indoor comfort and outdoor space.

Perfectly positioned on prestigious Gordon Road, the development offers an enviable blend of residential calm and city convenience. Gordon Road sits conveniently between Ealing Broadway Station, served by the Elizabeth, Central, and District lines, and West Ealing Station on the Elizabeth Line — placing central London within 15 minutes and making daily commuting effortlessly smooth.

Transport

Gordon Road is ideally positioned between West Ealing and Ealing Broadway stations, offering excellent transport connections. Ealing Broadway provides both Central and District lines, as well as the Elizabeth line, ensuring fast and convenient journeys into Central London and beyond, making commuting effortless while keeping you well connected to the capital.

Amenities

The development is very well-served with amenities. There are supermarkets close by (such as Morrisons, Marks & Spencer, Tesco and Asda Express) within a few minutes' walk. For leisure, there are gyms and fitness centres, cafes, take-aways and restaurants in Dickens Yard and New Broadway.

Schools

For families, there are several schools nearby, including independent prep schools and primary schools such as Harvington Prep, Durston House and Christ the Saviour C of E Primary.

Parks, Green Space and Recreation

There's quite a few nice green spaces around, ideal for walks, relaxation or some nature in the city. Dean Gardens, in West Ealing, offers a quiet retreat with lawns, old trees, a children's playground and seating. A little further, Drayton Green has open grass, a playground and spots used for informal sports. If you're up for something larger, Walpole Park close to Ealing Broadway is a historic landscaped garden with paths, gardens and tranquil spots. Ealing Green is also nearby, a smaller green area with mature trees and easy access around.
