High Street, Aldeburgh

Aldeburgh is an extremely popular seaside town, renowned for its connections with the composer Benjamin Britten, its sailing on the Rivers Alde and Ore and its heathland golf course. The High Street features an eclectic range of independent shops and brand name boutiques, restaurants and galleries, along with an independent cinema. The town is close to open countryside and nature reserves which are connected through a vast network of public footpaths. Situated within the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh is approximately two hours drive from London and the nearest train station is seven miles away at Saxmundham which, with a change at Ipswich, connects to London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

A charming townhouse occupying a prominent position on the High Street, Paradise End is an elegant period property combining spacious residential accommodation with distinctive pitched and hipped pantile roofs.

The accommodation is accessed via a private front entrance opening into a welcoming sitting room, beautifully proportioned with a window overlooking the High Street, an attractive fireplace with painted timber surround and fitted gas stove. From here, stairs rise to the first floor while glazed double doors lead through to an impressive kitchen/dining room forming the heart of the home. The kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of storage cupboards, concealed dishwasher and work surfaces with tiled surrounds, sink unit with filtered water supply and a matching central island incorporating a breakfast bar and refrigerator & freezer . Beyond, the spacious dining area enjoys casement doors opening directly onto a courtyard garden with access via a side gate to Dial Lane, its community garden and the sea front. An ideal space for entertaining and everyday living.

On the first floor, a half landing gives access to two stylish shower rooms, both attractively fitted, the larger featuring a generous shower, moulded basin with storage beneath and WC. The upper floors provide three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all enjoying views across the High Street. The principal bedroom is complemented by an elegant en suite bathroom complete with double-ended bath, wall-hung wash basin and WC, while the second bedroom benefits from a dual aspect outlook.
