

Pont Street, Knightsbridge

£1,100 Per Week

This beautifully conceived split level apartment is situated on the prestigious Pont Street, offering over 1000sqft of living space. Entrance is on the second floor (no lift) of an iconic 'Pont Street Dutch' building, into a hall with built in storage that opens onto the kitchen and reception room. The reception room benefits from a formal dining space, southerly aspect with ample light through the bay sash windows and incredible fire place feature with wall mounted mirror, housing the discreet television. The eat-in kitchen is designed in a contemporary style, featuring fully integrated appliances and bathed in sunlight from the large sash window that opens out onto a small balcony. The floors are laid with solid wood flooring throughout, rich in tone and complementing bespoke storage solutions. Along the well lit hallway leads you towards the bespoke office suite, complete with storage cupboards/shelves finished in varnished wood and a super kingsize bedroom, with a wealth of built in storage and contemporary ensuite shower room, second guest shower can be located in the hallway.
