Set in the sought-after village of Croy, this stylish three-bedroom detached villa is a home that ticks every box for modern family life. Bright, well-proportioned and beautifully presented, it combines generous living space with the kind of practical touches that make day-to-day life easier.

At the heart of the home, the light-filled lounge and dining area is ideal for relaxing evenings and entertaining friends alike, with sliding doors opening straight onto the private rear garden, so summer meals and kids' playtime flow easily from inside to out. The modern kitchen is fitted with quality integrated Smeg appliances, including an induction hob, double electric oven, extractor, fridge/freezer and dishwasher. A separate utility room keeps laundry and clutter out of sight, and a handy downstairs WC completes the ground floor.

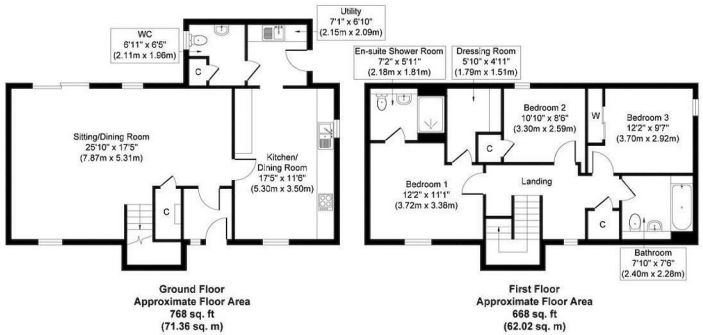

Upstairs are three generous double bedrooms, two with fitted storage. The principal bedroom is a real retreat, with its own walk-in wardrobe and a modern en-suite shower room. A well-appointed family bathroom serves the other bedrooms.

Outside, a driveway and single garage give you plenty of parking and storage. The house is also built to keep running costs down, with triple glazing, gas central heating and six solar panels.

Stylish, spacious and efficient, this is a home where a family can settle in and grow. Early viewing is highly recommended.
