Hawkins Lane is a peaceful, established and leafy setting within this exclusive location, offering a sense of seclusion while remaining conveniently close to the village centre, primary school and the surrounding open countryside. The nearby A30 provides swift connections to Exeter, the M5 and the coast.

The property offers a light-filled and versatile layout, ideal for both families and those seeking comfortable single-level living. A generous reception hall creates an inviting first impression and leads through to a large dual-aspect sitting room. A wide opening connects seamlessly to the formal dining room, perfect for entertaining. The traditional kitchen is fitted with oak-effect units at both base and eye level, along with an integrated oven and hob, while the adjoining utility room provides additional storage and appliance space.

On the ground floor are three double bedrooms, one with an en-suite, together with a cloakroom and a family bathroom, both fitted with modern white suites. The principal bedroom occupies the first floor, offering a peaceful retreat with its own en-suite shower room and pleasant separation from the rest of the home.

Approached via a shared driveway, the property is accessed through a five-bar gate onto a substantial private drive providing ample off-road parking and access to a double garage and garden store. The gardens are mainly laid to lawn, offering a blank canvas for landscaping, and a paved patio provides an ideal spot for outdoor dining and summer entertaining.

West Hill is a distinctive and desirable village with a well-stocked mini-supermarket and post office at its centre, along with a charming church, an excellent primary school, village hall, garage, hairdresser, dentist and regular bus services. The nearby town of Ottery St Mary, approximately two miles away, offers a wider range of amenities, including a renowned secondary school, medical centre, supermarket and independent shops. Exeter and the M5 are around eight miles away via the A30, while Honiton (with mainline rail services) and the coast at Sidmouth are both within easy reach.
