CLOSING DATE - TUESDAY 17 NOVEMBER 2026 AT 12 NOON - Rarely available in this sought-after village within the Cairngorms National Park, 6 Carr Place is a beautifully presented three-bedroom home enjoying an attractive position with superb open countryside views to the rear. The entrance vestibule opens into a central hallway giving access to the ground-floor accommodation, including a generous sitting room with two front facing windows framing the outlook, attractive parquet flooring and a feature fireplace with timber surround creating a natural focal point. From here, the kitchen and dining room is a bright and practical space fitted with an extensive range of units and complementary work surfaces, together with a range-style cooker, sink and appliance space, while there is ample room for a dining table and chairs and a glazed door provides direct access outside. A stylish and well-appointed bathroom completes the ground floor with a white suite comprising P shaped bath with shower, WC and wash hand basin, extensive wall tiling and a window for natural light. Stairs rise to the first-floor landing and three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious principal double and two further generous rooms suitable for family, guests or home working, with elevated outlooks making the most of the property's setting. The attic space is floored and partially insulated and lined with potential for conversion subject to the necessary consents. Outside, the rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with established planting and a pathway to the house, while beyond the boundary the outlook opens across neighbouring farmland towards woodland and the surrounding hills. With well-balanced accommodation, attractive presentation and easy access to village amenities and the wider countryside, this is an appealing Highland home in a desirable setting. Carrbridge
Enveloped in the heart of Scotland's majestic Cairngorms National Park, Carrbridge is an enchanting village with an unspoiled character and timeless charm. Its panoramic vistas, vibrant local community, and wealth of outdoor pursuits create a vibrant yet tranquil retreat that's simply bursting with potential for your new home. Steeped in history, Carrbridge is home to the oldest stone bridge in the Highlands. Built in 1717, this captivating landmark tells a thousand stories of a time gone by, resonating with the rich history of the Scottish highlands. A short stroll from the bridge reveals the village centre, a thriving hub of independent shops, cosy cafes, and traditional inns that perfectly reflect the warm and friendly spirit of the local community. A haven for outdoor enthusiasts, Carrbridge offers an unrivalled array of activities right on your doorstep. From invigorating hiking trails through ancient Caledonian forests to picturesque cycling paths, this quaint village allows you to immerse yourself in the heart of nature. In winter, the Cairngorms transform into a snow-dusted paradise, perfect for skiing, snowboarding, and sledging.
Carrbridge is also home to an exquisite selection of wildlife, making it a sanctuary for nature lovers. Roam the area and spot red squirrels, golden eagles, and ospreys in their natural habitats. Take a relaxing walk along the River Dulnain and watch salmon leap upstream, or quietly observe the majestic stags in the frost-touched winter mornings. For the golf enthusiast, Carrbridge boasts an enchanting 9-hole course set against the awe-inspiring backdrop of the Cairngorms. And for family fun, there's the Landmark Forest Adventure Park, an exhilarating day out for all ages. Despite its serene rural setting, Carrbridge is conveniently connected to larger towns and cities. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retirement haven, a dynamic family adventure base, or an idyllic holiday home, Carrbridge offers an exceptional quality of life. Experience the best of Highland living in this charming village, where heritage meets modern comfort, and nature is but a stone's throw away.

Schooling & Transport
Education

Carrbridge's local community benefits from a vibrant educational scene. Carrbridge Primary School is a small but well-resourced facility, offering an intimate and community-focused learning environment for children from nursery age to P7. The school's size ensures a strong teacher-student relationship and fosters a supportive learning environment.

For secondary education, students typically attend Grantown Grammar School in nearby Grantown on Spey, approximately a 15-minute drive away. This well-regarded school offers a comprehensive curriculum from S1 to S6 and has strong links with the local community.

Transport

Carrbridge enjoys excellent transport links, making it easy to connect with the rest of Scotland and the UK.

By Road: The A9, Scotland's main arterial route, is only a few minutes from Carrbridge, providing direct connections to Inverness in the north (around 25 miles away) and Aviemore in the south (about 7 miles away). The village is approximately a three-hour drive from both Edinburgh and Glasgow.

By Rail: Carrbridge has its own railway station, providing regular services to Inverness, Edinburgh, and Glasgow. The famous Caledonian Sleeper also stops at Carrbridge, offering overnight service to London.

By Air: Inverness Airport, only around 30 miles away, provides regular flights to many UK destinations including London, Manchester, Bristol, and Birmingham, as well as international flights.

Despite its tranquil and secluded feel, Carrbridge's exceptional transport links ensure residents and visitors can enjoy the best of both worlds: the serenity of highland living combined with the convenience of excellent connectivity.
