22 Chestnut Drive, Middletown, Welshpool, Powys, SY21 8EY

£225,000

A 3-bedroom semi-detached home located in a popular village on the Welsh/English border.

Located on the Welsh/English border in the village of Middletown. The village is surrounded by the Breidden Hills which provide some of the best walks and views in the area. Middletown has a village hall, popular pub with restaurant and church, with an excellent primary school in the village of Trewern. The village enjoys a good bus service to Shrewsbury (approximately 12.5 miles and Welshpool 5 miles). When you visit the property, we feel you will be surprised by the value on offer. A canopied storm porch with double glazed door leads to the hall. The larger than average living room has a walk-in bay window and a door to the kitchen/dining room providing a good range of units and understairs cupboard, and there is a wide opening leading to a Victorian style conservatory. From the hall the staircase leads to the first floor where there are 2 double bedrooms, one overlooking Lond Mountain and the other Middletown Hill and a well-equipped single bedroom with range of fitted wardrobes. The bathroom has a corner bath, wash basin and WC. The property is approached over a wide tarmacadam driveway providing ample parking, the front garden is laid to lawn and the rear garden designed for easy maintenance with a sun terrace and spacious timber decking.
