

Bankfield Close, Ainsworth

£210,000

Miller Metcalfe

Every step of the way

Occupying a pleasant position within a quiet cul-de-sac in the popular village of Ainsworth, this three bedroom mews-style home offers a great opportunity for a first-time buyer, young couple or anyone looking for a well-located home with useful additional space. With three bedrooms, a conservatory and a detached garage, the property has plenty to offer, while presenting scope for some updating and improvement to suit the next owner's tastes.

The ground floor provides a spacious reception room with plenty of room for both relaxing and dining, alongside a fitted kitchen with a range of base and eye-level units. To the rear, the conservatory adds valuable additional living space, offering a pleasant outlook over the garden and flexibility for a dining area, sitting room or somewhere to enjoy the garden throughout the year.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, comprising two generous doubles and a further single bedroom, together with the family bathroom. The accommodation is practical and well proportioned, making it a good option for a small family or buyers taking their first step onto the property ladder.

Outside, the property is garden-fronted, with a low-maintenance rear garden providing a private space to sit and enjoy. A particularly useful addition is the detached single garage, offering secure parking or valuable storage.

The location is a real attraction, with Bankfield Close positioned within easy walking distance of Ainsworth village and its range of local amenities, including shops, pubs, restaurants and popular schools. There are also convenient commuter links towards Bury, Bolton, Manchester and beyond.

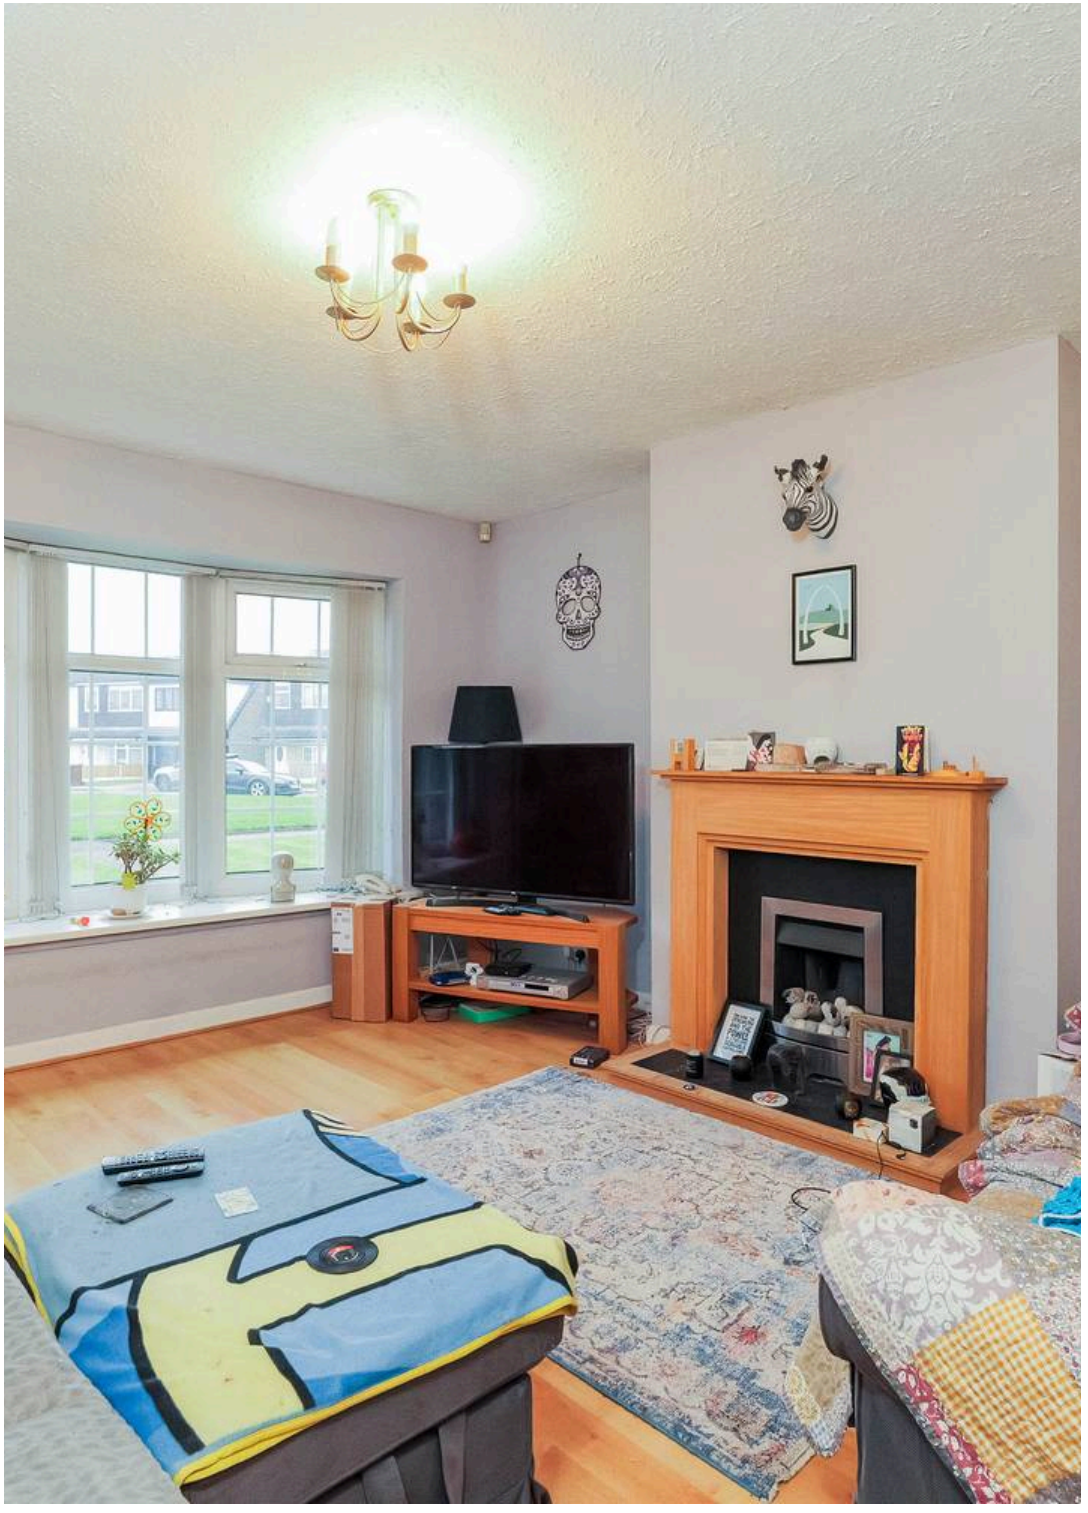

Offering a quiet setting, flexible accommodation and the benefit of a conservatory and detached garage, this is a property with plenty of potential in a popular village location. An excellent opportunity for buyers looking to get onto the property ladder or secure a home they can gradually make their own.
