THE PROPERTY

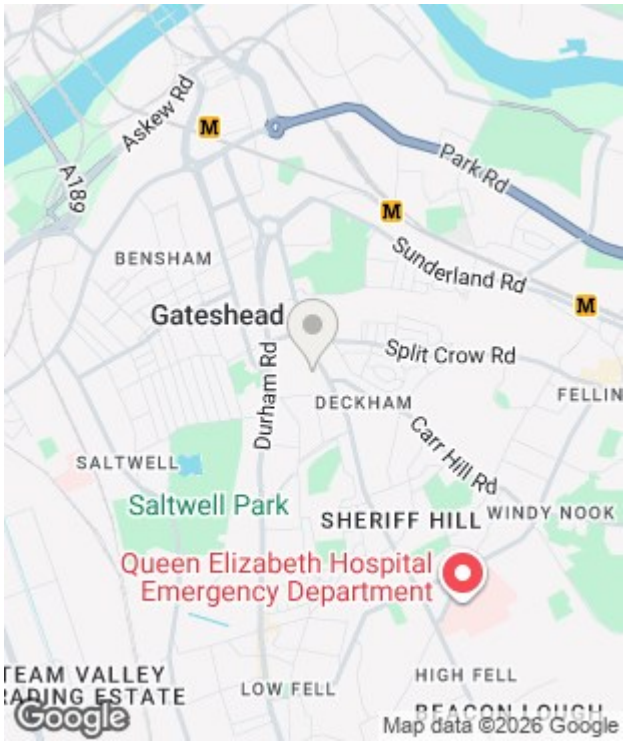

A beautifully renovated home offering stylish, move-in ready accommodation, perfect for first-time buyers looking to take their first step onto the property ladder.

This attractive property on Inskip Terrace has recently undergone a programme of renovation, creating a fresh, modern and welcoming home that is ready to enjoy from day one. Finished in a tasteful, contemporary style throughout, the accommodation offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a property without the expense or inconvenience of undertaking refurbishment works.

The living room provides a bright and inviting space for relaxing or entertaining, with fresh neutral decoration creating a modern yet homely atmosphere. The room offers excellent flexibility for comfortable furnishings and everyday living. The recently updated kitchen has been finished in a contemporary style, offering an attractive and practical space for preparing meals. Modern fittings and complementary finishes create a stylish environment that continues the property's appealing presentation. The bedrooms are equally well presented, offering comfortable accommodation with fresh decoration and plenty of versatility for furniture and storage. The bathroom has also been modernised, featuring contemporary fittings and a smart finish that complements the remainder of the home.
Throughout the property, the recent improvements have created a bright, clean and contemporary feel, making this an especially appealing choice for first-time buyers, young professionals or anyone seeking a home they can move straight into.

Inskip Terrace occupies a convenient residential position within Gateshead, with a range of local shops, supermarkets and everyday amenities nearby. The property is well placed for access to Gateshead and Newcastle city centres, while excellent public transport connections and nearby road links make commuting straightforward. The popular Saltwell Park is also within easy reach.
