John Hilton's are delighted to be able to offer, as sole selling agent and without onward chain, this imposing and handsome late Victorian, four-bedroom, bay-fronted family home which is ideally positioned towards the lower end of this popular tree-lined road making it super handy for local amenities and transport connections.

With tall ceilings and large windows throughout, the naturally light and airy accommodation spans an impressive three floors, with further potential to convert the loft space, and retains an array of original period features including corniced ceilings, exposed timber floorboards, decorative corbels and a turning staircase with Mahogany handrail. An open working fireplace provides an attractive focal point and the spacious entrance hallway, filled with natural light, offers an incredibly warm welcome.

The versatile lower ground floor benefits from its own separate street entrance and connects to the rear, wall-enclosed courtyard garden with convenient rear access, providing a private and manageable outdoor space.
