The ground floor provides two reception rooms, the lounge benefitting from ample seating space, and fireplace. There is a separate dining room with French doors opening to the garden, creating an excellent flow for everyday family living and entertaining. The modern fitted kitchen offers good worktop space and storage, with a recessed area for the cooker.

There are three double bedrooms to the first floor, and a further bedroom and WC to the second floor. The second floor landing also incorporates a dressing area. Décor throughout is in good condition with neutral finishes to the main rooms and sash double glazed windows to the lounge and all bedrooms, providing sound reduction and insulation while retaining period character. The spacious family bathroom and WC are fitted with white appliances.

Outside, the low-maintenance rear garden is a notable feature, with artificial lawn and seating areas bordered by painted brick walls, forming a private outdoor space for relaxing or dining.

The property is situated close to local public transport routes to and from Newcastle city centre, the MetroCentre, and easy access to the A1 and A69.

Early viewing is recommended.
