A wonderful example of a beautiful Victorian house, this four bedroom detached home has been done to a lovely standard and benefits from beautiful period features as well as a utility room, office and an annex.

Arranged over two floors and offering over 2000 sq ft of generous living space, this stunning period home consists of a primary bay fronted reception room, complete with original ceiling rose and cornicing. The rear of the house has been extended to create a second reception room, a study and a spacious kitchen ideal for entertaining with bi-fold doors opening onto the rear garden. The self-contained annex is ideal for guests or those working from home.

On the first floor there are four bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate office. There is also potential for extension by going up into loft (STPP), offering excellent flexibility for a family home.

Additional benefits include a large landscaped rear garden, side access, a driveway providing off-street parking for several cars, and a basement.

Situated conveniently between Northfields and Brentford High Streets, the property has easy access to Brentford station, Boston Manor tube station and the A4/M4 motorways.
