Four Bedrooms, a Kitchen to Show Off & a Jacuzzi Bath… Need We Say More?

Milbank, Chelmer Village, Chelmsford | Four-Bedroom Semi-Detached Home

Some homes tick the boxes. Others add a few extra boxes just for fun! And this impressive four-bedroom semi-detached home on Milbank, Chelmer Village, certainly knows how to make an entrance.

With stylish interiors, generous living space and some seriously lovely finishing touches, this is a home that brings modern family living to the next level. We're talking quartz worktops, a kitchen with feature lighting, bifold doors opening onto the garden, a jacuzzi bath for those well-deserved soaks and even a summer house for when you need five minutes of peace and quiet. Parents, we know you understand!

So, pop the kettle on and let's take a look around.

The Ground Floor – First Impressions Matter!

Step inside and you'll immediately notice the wooden flooring running throughout the ground floor, creating a smart, cohesive finish that feels both contemporary and welcoming. Shutters throughout the house add a stylish touch while offering privacy and control over the light.

It's a home that balances good looks with everyday practicality, because looking fabulous is one thing, but living comfortably is quite another!

The Sitting Room – Your New Favourite Place to Unwind

Whether you're planning a cosy film night, hosting friends or simply claiming the sofa after a long day, the sitting room is ready for it all.

The bifold doors open directly onto the garden, creating a lovely connection between inside and out. Throw them open on a sunny afternoon and let the fresh air in, or enjoy the view of the garden from the comfort of your sofa.

And here's a clever little extra: the remote-controlled electric blind. No need to get up and wrestle with awkward cords when you can adjust things at the touch of a button. Now that's the kind of convenience we can get behind!

Combined with the shutters found throughout the property, the room offers a stylish and comfortable setting for relaxing at any time of day.

The Kitchen/Dining/Family Room – Kitchen Envy Starts Here!

Now, this is where things get exciting!

The spacious kitchen/dining/family room is the heart of the home, offering plenty of room for cooking, dining, entertaining and those inevitable kitchen conversations that somehow last longer than the meal itself.

The kitchen features attractive handled cabinetry paired with elegant quartz worktops, creating a sleek finish that feels timeless without being boring. The marble-effect tiled kitchen flooring adds another touch of sophistication, while the feature lighting incorporated into the kickboards gives the room a contemporary glow when the evening rolls around.

And it's not just about the looks. This kitchen is equipped with integrated appliances, including a fridge freezer, dishwasher and washing machine, helping to keep everything neat and streamlined. The cooker even features a clever hide-and-slide door design, because sometimes it's the little details that make all the difference. A ceramic sink completes the look.

There's also plenty of room for dining and family seating, making this a fantastic space for everything from busy weekday mornings to leisurely weekend brunches.
