WOOLWELL

Woolwell is a popular suburb just five miles north of Plymouth, located within the South Hams district. It offers excellent access to Plymbridge Woods and Dartmoor National Park, making it ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors, enhanced by the award-winning Woolwell in Bloom floral displays found throughout the neighbourhood

The area is well-served with amenities, including a highly regarded primary school, two nurseries, a Medical Centre, and a Community Centre with function rooms, a café, and year-round events. Local shops include a small retail complex with takeaways and a hairdresser, alongside a large Tesco Extra and a Lidl.

Families benefit from two play parks, and a friendly community-focused atmosphere. Transport links are strong, with a regular bus service and a park-and-ride nearby offering direct access to Derriford Hospital and Plymouth city centre.

Within minutes' drive, residents can explore Dartmoor, play at Yelverton Golf Club, or visit Buckland Abbey, the historic home of Sir Francis Drake. Woolwell combines convenient living with access to nature, making it a highly desirable area.
