All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Some homes are simply places to live. Silverwood Barns is something altogether different - Set within an exclusive gated enclave on St Albans Road in the beloved village of Sandridge, this remarkable five-bedroom residence has been designed around the way people truly want to live beautifully, sustainably, and without compromise. A grand vaulted hallway welcomes you in, where natural light and considered materials set the tone for every room that follows. Three versatile reception rooms offer space for family life in all its forms, while the stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living area is the kind of space that draws people together whether that's a lazy Sunday morning or an evening with friends. Bi-fold doors open onto landscaped gardens that feel like a natural extension of the home itself. Upstairs, five generous bedrooms and four beautifully finished bathrooms provide genuine comfort and privacy for every member of the family. The top-floor principal suite is a retreat within a retreat, serene, spacious, and quietly luxurious. Designed with the future in mind, Silverwood Barns holds an EPC A rating, powered by solar panels and an air-source heat pump that keeps running costs impressively low.
