Cyprus Avenue, N3

This beautifully presented four bedroom home on sought-after Cyprus Avenue offers bright, spacious living ideal for modern family life and entertaining, complete with a large mature rear garden and generous patio perfect for outdoor gatherings.

Cyprus Avenue is a highly sought-after residential area for families, known for its excellent transport links, such as Finchley Central tube station, as well as nearby major highways. The property contains four double bedrooms, including two bespoke en-suites and a family bathroom.

Additional highlights comprise of a downstairs WC, a large side access with potential to extend STPP, a driveway accommodating multiple vehicles and a rear extension with skylights inviting natural light throughout the dining area.

A major draw for families is the area's proximity to top-rated local schools and places of worship, which adds to its strong appeal.

Cyprus Avenue is a prime location near highly regarded schools and excellent transport links, including the North Circular, multiple bus routes, and Finchley Central underground station. Additionally, scenic green spaces like Dollis Valley Greenwalk are just a short walk away.
