Like Chief Brody patrolling Amity Island, we've spent years getting to know the most trusted professionals in the area. If we recommend someone, it's because we genuinely believe they'll help keep your property journey calm, smooth, and — most importantly — shark-free. Every now and then, a small number of the professionals we recommend (certainly not the majority) may pay us a referral fee of up to £200. Don't worry — there's no hidden chum in the water. Our recommendations are always made in good faith, and you're under no obligation to use anyone we suggest.

One thing you can't outrun, however, is the paperwork. If your offer on one of our properties is accepted and you proceed with the purchase, there is a non-refundable administration fee of £36 (including VAT) per person to complete the required Anti-Money Laundering identity checks. No dramatic soundtrack required — just a straightforward part of buying your new home.
