SELLER'S SECRET

We bought Tintagel as a spacious family home, offering the potential for our family to grow from children to adults. It was a fantastic location for commuting, great schools and offering our lads a base for their growing independence. We wanted the privacy and potential to develop the property. It has been a great family home and offered everything we needed!

Why we like it....

We really like this house as it offers the space we are looking for, with its generous size, lovely gardens and well-proportioned bedrooms. The combination of indoor and outdoor space makes it particularly appealing.
