Beaumont Street, Netherton Huddersfield,

Offers over £100,000

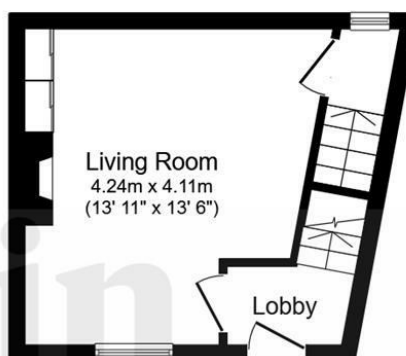

Located close to the centre of this popular village is this mid-terraced home, with the advantage of vacant possession and no onward chain. The accommodation is arranged over three floors with a lower ground floor dining kitchen, living room on the ground floor and, on the first floor, a large double bedroom and bathroom. The first floor could be reconfigured, potentially moving the bathroom, to turn the property into two bedrooms, as many of the neighbouring properties have done. The property has a gas-fired central heating system and majority wooden framed, sealed unit double-glazing. It would make an ideal first home, down-sizer or buy-to-let opportunity.

Details

Entrance Lobby

An external timber door with a single-glazed opaque fanlight gives access into the entrance lobby. This has a decorative ceiling archway, a staircase rising to the first floor and a radiator. A panelled stripped internal door opens into the living room.

Living Room

This good-sized reception room has a timber fire surround to the chimney breast, with floor-to-ceiling shelved storage to the right-hand side. It has a sealed unit double-glazed window to the front elevation, deep skirting boards, various wall light points and a radiator. A door leads into the lobby area.

Lobby Area

The lobby has an opaque sealed unit double-glazed window and steps leading down to the lower ground floor, where the dining kitchen can be found.

Dining Kitchen

This room has front and rear sealed unit double-glazed windows, wall cupboards and base units, working surfaces and a stainless steel sink with a single drainer. There is space for a freestanding cooker and a built-in four-ring gas hob. Beneath the worktops, there is space and plumbing for an automatic washer. The boiler for the central heating system is located in this room and there is a useful under stairs storage area. A large formal dining table can easily be accommodated. The room has two beams to the ceiling and a radiator.

First Floor

From the entrance lobby, the staircase rises to the first floor accommodation.
