Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Receptions: 2

Tucked away at the end of Silver Street, Overlands enjoys a fantastic position in Congresbury, offering a wonderful sense of privacy alongside far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside. This is a spacious and well-proportioned home, with plenty to offer both inside and out, including an impressive garden, ample parking and a particularly generous garage with a useful loft room above.

The accommodation is particularly well-proportioned, with a spacious sitting room measuring over 26ft, providing plenty of room to relax and entertain. The separate kitchen/diner offers a good amount of space for everyday family life, with room for a dining table. A real feature of the home is the conservatory, which provides an additional reception space overlooking the garden, with plenty of glazing bringing the outside in and making the most of the lovely outlook. The ground floor also benefits from three bedrooms and a family bathroom, with two further bedrooms and a wet room upstairs, giving the property a flexible layout that could suit a variety of needs.

The outside space is what really makes this property stand out. The garden is both extensive and beautifully established, with a generous lawn, mature trees and a variety of planting, creating a lovely setting to relax and enjoy the open views. The position at the end of Silver Street adds to the feeling of privacy, while the adjoining countryside gives the property a particularly appealing outlook.
