RESIDENTIAL

Well presented, four-bedroom detached bungalow on Main Street in Red Row, offering generous accommodation, ample parking and an attractive open aspect across neighbouring fields.

Internally, the home offers a substantial lounge with garden access, a separate dining room and a well-proportioned breakfast kitchen with French doors. Four double bedrooms include a generous main bedroom with walk-in wardrobe and en suite, complemented by a family bathroom and useful utility room. Outside, there is a gravel driveway and a generous lawned rear garden with raised decking and countryside views.

Red Row is a Northumberland village well placed for access to the coastline at Druridge Bay, with nearby Hadston providing a range of shops and everyday amenities. Druridge Bay Country Park and its expansive beach are also within easy reach, offering opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying the coast. The area provides convenient connections towards Amble, Morpeth and surrounding Northumberland communities, making it a practical choice for families and buyers seeking generous living space within easy reach of the coast.

The internal accommodation comprises: a welcoming entrance hall leading through to the main reception spaces. To the rear, the substantial lounge offers generous proportions, wood-effect flooring and sliding glazed doors opening onto the garden, drawing in plenty of natural light while taking advantage of the open views across the fields. The adjoining dining room provides a separate yet well-connected setting for dining and entertaining.

The well-proportioned kitchen/breakfast room offers ample room for informal dining and is fitted with an extensive range of wood-finish wall and base units, dark work surfaces, tiled splashbacks, tiled flooring and recessed lighting. French doors open directly onto the rear garden and frame the surrounding countryside views. A separate utility room provides further fitted units, work surfaces, a sink, plumbing for laundry appliances and an external door.

The main bedroom is particularly generous, with wood effect flooring and a large walk-in wardrobe, alongside an en suite fitted with a glazed walk-in shower and wash basin. Three further comfortable double bedrooms provide excellent additional accommodation, each positioned towards the front of the property, while the family bathroom is well appointed with a freestanding bath, separate glazed walk-in shower, wash basin, tiled walls, dark tiled flooring and a heated towel rail.

Externally, the property is set back from the road, with a substantial gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking and additional land to both sides. The generous rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with a raised timber deck providing space for outdoor seating and open views across the neighbouring fields and surrounding countryside.
