Flat 3 12 May Lane, Dursley, GL11 4JN

SITUATION

The property occupies an extremely convenient position in May Lane which is located in the town centre. The town has a good range of facilities including Sainsburys supermarket, a wider range of independent retailers along with doctors and dental surgeries, library, bowling green, swimming pool and an 18-holed golf course at Stinchcombe Hill. Within close proximity is the bus station which connects to the Cam and Dursley railway station with regular services to Bristol and Cheltenham with onward connections to the national rail network.

DIRECTIONS

From Dursley town centre proceed through May Lane passing the library and, as the road bears to the right, turn to the left and proceed through May Lane and you will see the doctors surgery on the left hand side and 12 May Lane is almost opposite on the right hand side.

DESCRIPTION

This property occupies a particularly convenient position set back from the road yet within a few moments walk of the Doctors surgery, pharmacy, The Old Spot public house and the town centre is within a few minutes walk. The building houses five retirement properties with Flat 3 being located on the first floor. The property briefly comprises; communal entrance hall, private entrance hall, living/dining room, kitchen, shower room and bedroom. Allocated parking is located in the car park with a communal garden to rear with use of a private wooden shed.
