Property Description

We are delighted to bring to the market this stunning semi-detached family home in the sought-after market town of Ulverston, close to local amenities, transport links, popular schools, coastal beaches and it is in walking distance of the popular tourist attraction Hoad Hill. The property has been renovated and tastefully decorated throughout with some lovely features to compliment the property.

The property boasts excellent family living accommodation over three floors and comprises of forecourt entrance leading to the hallway, open plan lounge, dining room with wood burner style fire and double-glazed windows with fitted shutters, modern fitted shaped kitchen with dark charcoal effect, slate grey fitted units with quartz worktops to compliment and integrated appliances. The first floor offers the main bedroom with a modern ensuite, modern family bathroom and stairs leading to the second floor with a further two double bedrooms with feature beamed ceiling.

The property benefits from central heating, double-glazing, rear enclosed shaped mature garden with lawned area, plants/trees, paved seating area and a feature BBQ area. The property has the great added bonus of its very own parking bay with easy access to the rear. Location is key with this property if you are looking for something ready to move into with easy walking distance to the town and all local attractions, Ulverston has weekly events where there is plenty to do and see. Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate size and standard on offer.
