96 Swanlow Lane, Winsford CW7 1JA

Offers in excess of £550,000

4 2 3 E

Set along the highly regarded Swanlow Lane, this impressive four-bedroom detached period home is packed with character, individuality and charm, offering generous accommodation arranged over three floors alongside mature gardens and off-road parking.

From the moment you approach, there is a real sense of the period and style of the home. A beautiful Minton tiled entrance porch and signature arched detailing provide a wonderful first impression, opening into a welcoming entrance hallway where attractive parquet flooring continues the character within. The ground floor offers excellent and versatile living space, beginning with two separate bay-fronted reception rooms, both retaining plenty of period personality. To the rear is a further dining area which opens into the kitchen, creating a sociable everyday living space. The kitchen itself has been updated in recent years, combining well with the traditional feel of the property. A rear conservatory is currently utilised as a practical utility area and also provides

- Substantial detached and unique family home.
- Retaining a wealth of character and features throughout
- Flexible reception accommodation to the ground floor
- Set on one of Winsford's most desirable roads
- Four great sized bedrooms set over the first floor and second floor.
- Downstairs WC and shower room.
