Outside

Front

Driveway providing off road parking for two vehicles which in-turn leads to the former garage store, with power and light and two up and over doors. The front garden is attractive with dwarf wall and further parking potential should it be required.

Rear

The garden has immediate patio and elevated patio area with rockery and timber summer house. The garden is enclosed by timber panelled fencing, with gated access to the side, leading to the driveway and access to the retained garage storage area with up and over door. A further personal door allows direct access to the rear of the former garage space - now converted to home office/ or playroom/ guest bedroom space with plastered walls, power, light and dedicated consumer fuse box unit. Note the owners advise the full garage could easily be fully reinstated to car storage with little expense.
