Crestholm, Red Shute Hill, Hermitage

A substantial five bedroom detached family home situated in a highly desirable semi-rural hamlet, presenting a rare opportunity to invest and add significant value through modernisation and potential to extend (STTP).

Crestholm is located on a generous plot that measures in excess of a third of an acre with views across the surrounding countryside. Other benefits include spacious living accommodation that measures 2,385 sq.ft, a south-westerly facing rear garden, ample off-road parking by way of paved driveway and double garage, oil fired central heating and uPVC double glazing.

The ground floor comprises of a porch, entrance hall, downstairs cloakroom, study, sitting room, dining room, utility room and kitchen/breakfast room with French doors that open on to the garden patio. Upstairs, there is a principal bedroom complete with built-in wardrobes and a complete ensuite bathroom, four further double bedrooms and a family shower room.

The ground floor promises the scope to be further extended to create a large and modern family home. Or alternatively, there is ample roof space above the double garage that could be converted into further living accommodation.

Externally, there is a substantial and beautiful rear garden that is primarily laid to lawn and neatly bordered by a mixture of hedges, bushes and mature trees.

Red Shute Hill is conveniently located near to the popular village of Hermitage which is approximately four miles north east of Newbury. There are good village facilities including a shop/post office, village hall, and the property falls within the catchment area of the highly regarded Downs school and the prestigious Downe House school.
