

Willow Dene Meadow Lane, Battle, TN33 0RF
Offers In Excess Of £650,000 Freehold

Far reaching rural views, a quiet private side road and a garden that feels like a country retreat set the scene for this versatile detached chalet bungalow, one of just six homes in a select enclave yet an easy stroll from the village centre. Remodelled three years ago to a high standard, it offers the rare reassurance of a home you can move straight into, with a full downstairs rewire, new plumbing and underfloor heating to the kitchen, a new boiler, a new upstairs bathroom and downstairs shower room, replacement windows and doors to the rear, entirely new flooring, a new porch and a replacement driveway with parking for several vehicles. The porch opens to a reception hallway flowing through to a fabulous triple aspect kitchen/dining room and a picturesque double aspect living room, both with doors onto the decked terrace, ideal for long summer evenings with the view. Two further downstairs rooms adapt easily to suit your life, whether as a study, gym, second reception room or guest bedroom, and a shower room completes the ground floor. Stairs rise to a galleried landing, a lovely spot to sit and enjoy, with three eaves double bedrooms and a family bathroom, two bedrooms having double aspect windows and those same far reaching views. Gated access on both sides of the property leads from the driveway to a magnificent rear garden, with a workshop and shed, a lawn divided by a flower border, a wild area with three new fruit trees, and a greenhouse and vegetable beds beyond. The village inn, shop and post office, village hall, church, GP surgery and pharmacy, primary school and country walks are all within walking distance, while Battle with its mainline station, famous Abbey, renowned schooling including the Claverham catchment and further amenities is a short drive away. A spacious, private and tranquil home with real homely appeal, ready for its next chapter.
