Inside, the home offers bright and comfortable living spaces with a practical flow that works equally well for everyday life and entertaining.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a private rear garden, off-street parking and its own garage, giving you the extra storage and convenience that can be hard to find.

The location is a real strength. Sydney Road is well placed for local shops, cafés, supermarkets and everyday amenities, while Benfleet Station is within easy reach for direct C2C services into London Fenchurch Street. Families are also well served by nearby schools, including The Appleton School and a number of local primary schools.

A well-located, well-proportioned family home with excellent parking and storage, this is one to see in person.
