Local Area

Stotfold is a popular Bedfordshire-Hertfordshire border town that seamlessly blends a relaxed, community-spirited countryside lifestyle whilst benefiting from a strong market value.

Positioned right on the Hertfordshire border, it’s ideal for growing families, first-time buyers and professionals seeking the perfect balance between urban accessibility and rural charm offering weekend family cycles, morning runs, or long dog walks, giving a sense of space and a healthy, outdoor lifestyle.

The high street boasts a welcoming mix of traditional pubs and independent shops including a local cafe, supermarkets, pharmacy, dentist, opticians, hair salons/barbers and butchers. For a broader shopping and dining experience, the vibrant market towns of Hitchin and Letchworth Garden City are just minutes away.

A primary draw for families is the excellent selection of exceptional schools, including highly regarded primary options as well as state-of-the-art secondary academies celebrated for their 'Outstanding' leadership and student behaviour.

It particularly appeals to commuters with rapid access to the A1(M), excellent local rail links at nearby Arlesey, Hitchin & Letchworth providing direct, fast train services into London King's Cross and St Pancras International stations in under 40 mins.
