Property Description

A beautifully appointed four storey townhouse on Trevor Place, South Kensington, offering an impressive balance of contemporary design, generous living space and practical functionality.

The lower ground floor is centred around a substantial kitchen and dining area, complete with an island, extensive fitted storage and direct access to a private patio, creating an ideal setting for both everyday living and entertaining. A dedicated media room and separate utility room further enhance the accommodation.

The ground floor features an elegant reception room with large windows allowing natural light to fill the space, complemented by a balcony offering an additional outdoor retreat.

The principal bedroom occupies the first floor, providing a spacious sanctuary with an ensuite bathroom featuring both a separate bath and shower. The second floor offers two further well proportioned bedrooms, each with its own ensuite, while the top floor comprises an additional bedroom with ensuite facilities, ideal for guests or flexible family living.

Finished to a high standard throughout, the property combines modern interiors with thoughtfully arranged accommodation across all four floors.

Trevor Place is ideally positioned in the heart of South Kensington, moments from Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens.
